November December 2009 Newsletter

Rather late again – and my apologies for that.

This month our themed food night is American on 14th November and I am pleased to say we have a singer to perform a couple of Frank Sinatra numbers whilst you dine. Three courses for £12.50 again and the menu will be formalised by the start of that week. Booking before the day would be helpful and ideally diners will be ready for a 7.45/8pm start.

The food night in December will be Canadian and wearing a bobble hat may be compulsory!

Also we will have a backgammon tournament on Wednesday 16th December, which is open to all and if you don't know how to play it is a simple game that you can learn in five minutes. Instruction can be had on the night. If it proves popular I will run it regularly, more for the social side than the winning!

Christmas quiz will be on 23rd December with bumper prizes available! Not to be missed,

Traditional carol singing on the evening of 24th – singing usually starts around 9pm

We will be open briefly Christmas day and Boxing Day and then as normal after that. However the pub will close for two days after New Year for rest and running repairs to both the pub and me!

New Years Eve party will be a 1940s themed night and late buffet food will be provided as usual with disco dancing in the alley.

A full timetable of opening over the Christmas holiday will follow at the end of November.
